The court appointed William M. Lindsay to take testimony. A Minneapolis paper thus refers to a fea-

Harrity Will Not Call a Meeting of the Democratic National Committee. PHILADELPHIA, June 7.—Chairman Wil-Ham F. Harrity, of the Democratic national committee, has received a number of inquiries as to whether he intended to call a meeting of the committee at an early date to decide whether or not a national convention should be called to take action on the money question. In order to relieve the minds of anxious Democrats the following open letter:

"I do not expect or intend to call a meeting of the Democratic national committee until next winter, when it will meet for the purpose of fixing the time and place of holding the Democratic national convention in 1896, unless I shall be requested to do so by the requisite number of the Democratic national committee. I do not believe there is any necessity for a convention at this time; on the contrary, I am of the opinion that to call one now would be harmful to the business interests of the country and prejudicial to the welfare of the Democratic party.' MANCHESTER CUP WON BY THE PRINCE OF WALES'S FLORIZEL.

Mr. Dwyer's Horse Tenth at the Finish-Results at Roby, Latonia, St. Louis and San Francisco.

MANCHESTER, June 7 .- Florizel II. owned by the Prince of Wales, won the Manchester cup, to-day, against a large field of horses, which included M. F. Dwyer's Banquet II. Florizel was favorite in the betting at 7 to 2, but Americans, who turned out in large numbers, backed Banquet heavily, so that just before the race the odds were 8 to 1, whereas a fortnight ago they were 20 to 1. The odds on the other horses that started were Mr. Gottschalk's Cypria, 5 to 1; P. Buchanan's The Docker, 8 to 1; J. H. Houdsworth's Bushev Park, 8 to 1; Captain Machell's Campanjo, 9 to 1: Leopold De Rothschild's Rodomont 10 to 1; Mr. Cohen's Greenlawn, 12 to 1; Mr. Blake's Rockdove, 12 to 1. This morning nearly all the sporting prophets tipped Florizel II for a winner, but they all inti-mated that Banquet II was a decidedly dan-The result was as follows: The Prince of Wales's brown colt, Florizel II, four years old, first; Cohen's brown colt, Greenlawn, four years old, second; Mr. P. Buchanan's chestnut colt, The Docker, four years old, third. Rodomont held a clear lead until nearing the distance, where The Docker assumed the lead, followed by Greenlawn and Florizel II. The latter won amid enthusiastic cheering, by two lengths. Threequarters of a length separated second and third horses. Rodomont was fourth. Banquet II was clearly outclassed. He got a fair start, but Simms, the colored jockey who rode the American horse, knew from the moment he got away that his mount was beaten. The distance was one mile and three-quarters. Banquet finished tenth. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Croker and Michael F. Dwyer are staying at the Queen's Hotel here. Mr. Croker spent the morning viewing the annual parade of the Irish Cath-olic societies from the balcony of that hotel, Mr. Dwyer remained indoors and did not go to the track until just before the race. He and Mr. Croker did not speak encouragingly of the chances of Banquet II when reply ing to the inquiries of their American friends. During the race the Croker and Dwyer parties occupied the most prominent box on the grand stand. Mr. Dwyer stood leaning against the rail of the box and was the coolest man of the multitude of persons present at the race. The Prince of Wales was not present at the race today, but the victory of Florizel II was

The big race was witnessed by fully eighty thousand people. The inclosures and grand stand, as well as the infield, were packed to suffocation, and the spectators had barely room to move. Banquet II was the first of the cup horses to make his appearance in the paddock. He attracted the attention of the sports by his zetra-like covering, on which his name was scrawled in large, irregular letters. After the first race, prior to the big handicap being decided. Banquet was taken out on the course and given a warming up gallop. Florizel II made his appearance on the track he was surrounded by an enthusiastic crowd of backers. His victory was a most popular one, and as he flashed under the wire the spectators threw their hats in the air. while the ladies waved their parasols and handkerchiefs. Deafening cheers made the welkin ring for fully five minutes afterward. There was another outburst of enthusiasm when the band appropriately played "God Bless the Prince of Wales." Mr. Croker won $500 on Florizel II.

Another Roby Meeting Ended.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. HAMMOND, Ind., June 7.-This was the last day of the spring meeting of the Hammond Fair Association, and three thousand people were out to witness the races. The meeting just closed has been one of the most profitable ever held on the track, notwithstanding the gates have been thrown open for the free admission of the public for the last four days. The average daily attendance has been more than three thousand, and five races have been run every day for the largest purses ever given on the track. The class of horses has improved greatly, and to-day some of the best horses in the country are stationed at the track. The races to-day were interesting, though no sensational finishes were made. ALL RECORDS BROKEN

FROM CHICAGO TO NEW YORK AWHEEL IN LESS THAN 60 HOURS.

The Relay Bicycle Race Finished at 1:56 o'Clock This Morning-Message to Gen. Miles.

NEW YORK, June 7 .- The great relay bicycle race of the red and blue between Chicago and this city was finished at 1:56 o'clock this (Saturday) morning. The actual time of the race was 65 hours and 53 minutes. The last relay should have reached the finishing point at Sixtieth street and the Western boulevard at 8 o'clock this morning. Arriving when they did they broke all American records for a relay race. The great race, which had its start at Chicago at 9:30 o'clock last Wednesday morning, was begun after months of preparation. Two years ago, just after the first relay race between Chicago and this city, Gen. Nelson A. Miles, then in Chicago, now commanding the Eastern division of the United States army, expressed himself as being strongly in favor of the bicycle in military life, and urged that relay races be more frequently run. Believing that the wheel in future will play an important part in military circles, he himself became a rider, and has had a great deal to say of the present race, which was organized on the strength of his words of encouragement.

The "blue" riders represented the military; the "rea" the postal service. From almost the first day of the race the riders were ahead of the schedule time, and there was a strong rivalry between the different colors to distance one another. For the most part the roads were found fair, and the route arranged a favorable one. By yesterday morning there was not a "bike" rider in town who did not know that the relay riders were far ahead of time and that they would arrive not long after midnight. At midnight there was a great throng at the junction of Sixtieth street and the boulevard, the finishing post of the race. Long before there could be any hope of the greeted with cheering and enthusiasm such riders appearing the waiters peered into as never before heard or seen at Manchesthe darkness and every once in awhile the near-by residents. On the wall of a building close at hand there had been posted an immense chart, showing the route from Chicago, through Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York, marked with figures that illustrated the progress of the riders. It was 1:56 o'clock this morning when the red message was delivered to General Miles.

The message said: "This message leaves Chicago on June in front of my quarters, at 9 a. m. WESLEY-MERRITT. "U. S. A., Commanding the Department of

Will Come Off at Dallas. NEW YORK, June 7 .- Daniel Stewart had a conference with Joseph Vendig and W. A. Brady, Corbett's manager, this afternoon. After they separated, Mr. Stewart said to the reporter: "I am now perfectly satisfied that the men mean business and that the fight will be brought off in Dallas. Tex., on the last day of October next. All the details have been arranged satisfactory to every one concerned and nothing now remains to close the matter up, except the posting of a guarantee of $5,000 from each of the principals. Mr. Brady has assured me that Corbett's money will be up by noon to-morrow, and I expect that Fitzsimmons or his representative will also be on time with a similar amount. The people whom I represent are solid business men and there will be no possible chance of a slip-up oc-Emanuel Friend, who is the legal adviser gaged on the trial of Police Inspector Mc-Laughlin that I cannot attend to anything else until it is concluded.
